GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

248, with 31 estimated for Monday.

The bull movement in provisions continues, and to-day's closing was strong at substantial gains over yesterday. Realizing was on a liberal scale again to-day, but offerings were readily absorbed by packers and stock yards interests leading in the buying. The hog situation is, of course, the controlling factor, especially as prices for same are considerably above prices of contract provisions.

Speculators Hold Aloof on Day of Recessions.

LABOR WAR HAS INFLUENCE

General Feeling Is that Values Will Go Up When Winter Holiday Season Is Over and Agricultural Pursuits Are Taken Up for the Spring. Lowest Rates Have Passed.

New York, Feb. 26 .- All that the stock market did to-day was to sag. De clines were not great, the market closed above the lowest of the day, and the action of prices was no more than might have been expected in view of the fact that in the main through the week the tendency of values has been, if anything, slightly upward, and that to-day was the natural time for traders' realizations. Nevertheless, a general feeling was very noticeable during the morning that whatever harder undertone had been witnessed in the security market during the week had been due to the favorable result on net balance of purely professional operations, and that there were no signs that the large financial interests were at the moment in any way Wabash com...

It may be that reflections of this so more or less accelerated the day's r cessions. The failure announced yester day afternoon of a small banking firm that had been engaged in the exploita tion of a minor railway enterprise this State and a consequent receivership for the railway itself was, of course, trivial matter, but it did not serve encourage speculative sentiment. Influence of Labor Wars.

'An adverse influence was also exerte

So far as could be seen a factor in the market was in no way the expectations of B. B. T. crt. 48...... an unfavorable bank statement which were, however, realized in considerable part.

Quotations furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co., members of the Chicago Board of Trade, Hibbs Bullding, Chicago, Feb. 26.—Wheat was steady to 1% lower for May and unchanged to ¼ higher for July. Reports from the Southwest were of wheat being killed by frost, milder weather with rain at some points, and a prediction of a sharp drop in temperature. There was naturally some profit taking after the sudden advance of yesterday, but commission houses continued to buy July and September wheat. May wheat was again the laggard, selling at 7 cents over July, a loss on premium of over 2 cents a bushel within a few days. Considering that wheat advance over 2½ from yesterday's low point and held a great portion of the advance, the market cannot be called anything but strong. Local car lots, 9, with 18 estimated for Monday.

Corn ruled slightly lower than last night's close, during most of the session. The trade was very light comparatively and the tone distinctly heavy. Firmness in wheat kept the price from breaking. Sample market steady to a shade lower. Local car lots, 28, with 31 estimated for Monday.

The bull movement in provisions continues, and today's closing was strong at substantial cains over American National Bank, 10 at 185, Washington Gas, 25 at 71, 25 at 71. Following are the bid and asked prices on yester-day's Washington Stock Exchange: GAS BONDS.

New York, Feb. 26.—Thrust and parry in the May option make up the most interesting features of the cotton situation. May yesterday advanced practically a dollar a bale, making a rise from the recent low level of 3.50 a bale. The opening was lower, but large buying orders soon made their appearance. Big spot interests which some time back are supposed to have bought March heavily and to have sold May are now understood to hold the stock here and to be covering the sales of May. One large spot firm is credited with buying fully 50,060 bales of May to-day. The "short" congestion in the May option was one of the principal sustaining factors. It will be interesting to see what the market will do when this is liquidated.

Futures declined 10 points on the active months, rallied and advanced 13 to 18, reacted slightly, closing steady. Estimated sales, 200,000 bales.
